It is declared that there are extensive financial interests in this country which would be willing to make a loan to Mexico provided the sanction of the Washington authorfties could be satisfied. These bank ers have made heavy investments in Mexico and fear that unless they add enough now to make their property safe they will lose everything.

The fact that the United States and Great Britain are now allies may have some bearing on the situ ation. British oil interests in Mexico are extensive and the British humiliations and embarrassments which have been thrown in the path of her citizens in Mexico by reason of Mexican disturbances. If financial assistance could be given Mexico at this time in such a way as to guarontee peace and quiet and an opportunity to bring needed naval oil out of the Tuxpam and Tampico dis tricts in larger quantities, the authorities in London would be glad to see it given.
